The United States Postal Service and the Citizen's Stamp Advisory Council choose subjects or topics for commemorative stamps. Among the main criteria they have established are:

- A. Stamps and stationary will primarily feature American or American-related subjects.
- B. No living person is ever honored.
- C. Any subject of commemoration must be deceased for at least 10 years.
- D. Only events and themes of widespread national appeal and significance are considered for commemoration.
